Foreword

In the beginning of my life as a collector, Ärmelbänder / Cuff Titles Kreta Afrika Kurland Metz 1944 the cuff titles on the uniforms of the soldiers have fascinated me. In 1995, cuff titles were difficult to find in the flea markets. The Internet and the collector forums were still in their infancy. The military dealers sent their printed sales catalogs without pictures to their customers. Comparative photos of cuff titles were not used as a reference for originality.

The first images about cuff titles were in the book made by Kurt G. Klietmann "Awards of Ärmelbänder / Cuff Titles Kreta Afrika Kurland Metz 1944 the German Reich 1936-1945". In 1998 Gordon Williamson and Thomas McGuirl created the book "German Military Cuffband 1784-Present", which helped me and others to find original cuff titles instead of reproductions.

The possibilities to analyze comparable pieces have improved dramatically in the recent years but still it is not easy to get an original cuff title.

Here I would like to start with my book and bring the collector large color photos of original cuff titles to see how they really have to be.

The cuff title as award for bravery in battle

This book on the four cuff titles of the Wehrmacht should not be a guide that goes beyond the normal collector horizon. It should be a helpful hand for the collectors of battle badges and decorations to identify the desired piece as an original cuff title and finally to bring a nice addition to his own collection. During my times on flea markets and collectors' meetings I was often asked whether this Cuff title is "real" or was it counterfeit?

In many cases, I gave my answer very carefully. I always told the collectors to keep in mind that I don't know everything. Also remember that there will be new discoveries in the cuff title area from time to time. Finally nothing is written in stone.

In this book you will only find the standard type cuff title that has Ärmelbänder / Cuff Titles Kreta Afrika Kurland Metz 1944 been classified as 100 % original on the collectors market. Most of the cuff titles you will find here in the book are either from my own collection and in Ärmelbänder / Cuff Titles Kreta Afrika Kurland Metz 1944 my possession for years or from the collections of my friends.

During my early collector years I had the great fortune to get the cuff titles AFRIKA , KRETA and KURLAND. For many years I was in search of the cuff title METZ 1944. Some nice ones crossed my way, but I was unsuccessful getting one for my collection.

I would like to Ärmelbänder / Cuff Titles Kreta Afrika Kurland Metz 1944 thank all collectors, forums and distributors, who have provided me with help and advice as well as contemporary material for comparison purposes.
