Chapter 1

“Looks like the baby is fine,” Dr. Smith said as he turned from ultrasound monitor to face me.
“Consider it your body’s warning sign that you need to relax. Everything inside of you is stretching out and adjusting, and stress can cause you to go into labor prematurely. You need to relax.”

I breathed a sigh of relief as I recalled the events that had taken place over the past hour. Leo had reluctantly carried me to Dr. Ryker’s car after arguing with him over who would drive me to the hospital. Eventually, he realized that he was indeed too A Baby For My Doctor 3 (Taboo Pregnancy Romance) drunk to drive a pregnant woman and handed me over Dr. Ryker while following behind us in his own car.

When we arrived at the hospital ER, I was placed in a wheelchair and received immediate assistance. Thankfully, the doctors and security at the nearby hospital could tell that Leo was intoxicated, and after consulting me, refused to allow Leo to accompany me and Dr. Ryker into the patient’s room.

“Just give it another 30 minutes for the medication to absorb and for your heartbeat to fully slow down, then you’re free to go.” With that, Dr. Ryker shook the other doctor’s hand and Dr. Smith left the room.

Once we were alone, my loving doctor knelt beside the bed and squeezed my A Baby For My Doctor 3 (Taboo Pregnancy Romance) hand. “I’m so sorry, Ruthie. I shouldn’t have—”

“You shouldn’t have what?” I interrupted. “This isn’t your fault... I should’ve told you about Leo.” Tears swelled into my eyes, and it took all my willpower not to start balling right there.

“So you’re still seeing him?” He reached for the paper in his pocket with his free A Baby For My Doctor 3 (Taboo Pregnancy Romance) hand.

“No.” I sniffed and laughed at the same time. “Of course not. He just hasn’t quite let go yet. I’ve caught him stalking me a few times, and he’s been leaving memoirs of our relationship on A Baby For My Doctor 3 (Taboo Pregnancy Romance) our door. And that,” I pointed toward the list of baby names that he had started to unfold. “That’s one of them.”

“And you just happened to be carrying it around on you?”

I took a deep breath, and a sense of regret swelled in my throat. “I was with Leo a long time. Sometimes it’s hard to let all those memories go. I was wrong to have kept that and I’m sorry.”

Nolan paused a moment and then gave me a slight smile as he handed the piece of A Baby For My Doctor 3 (Taboo Pregnancy Romance) paper back to me. “I understand. Don’t worry about it. But if there’s still any relationship between you and Leo, I hope you’ll let me know. I’m 100% committed to you and this baby, Ruthie.”

“There’s absolutely nothing going on with me and Leo. I love you.”

He rose up off of A Baby For My Doctor 3 (Taboo Pregnancy Romance) his knees and kissed me on the forehead.

“But—” I paused and took a deep breath before laying even more heavy news A Baby For My Doctor 3 (Taboo Pregnancy Romance) on him, “there’s one other thing.”

“What is it, Ruthie?”

“My mother will be coming to town in A Baby For My Doctor 3 (Taboo Pregnancy Romance) 3 days. She wants to plan a baby shower and she’s really excited.”

“Well, that’s great news!” Nolan A Baby For My Doctor 3 (Taboo Pregnancy Romance) beamed. “I can meet your mother and—”

“Nolan...” I interrupted.

Nolan froze and A Baby For My Doctor 3 (Taboo Pregnancy Romance) tilted his head.

“She thinks I’m still living with Leo. He called her several weeks ago and said that the baby is his and that we’re getting married.”

Nolan froze, and the blood drained from his face. “And you... You let her just believe that?”

Seeing my doctor visibly upset let me realize the gravity of the situation. I was wrong again, and there was nothing I could do to justify my actions. I had plenty of time to tell my mother the truth, but I hadn’t yet. “She was just so happy when she told me that she was coming to see me... I didn’t have the heart to tell her of over the phone. I was planning to tell you tonight before all of this happened.”

Dr. Ryker swallowed hard, and A Baby For My Doctor 3 (Taboo Pregnancy Romance) I could see the muscles all over his body tensing. After a few moments of silence he spoke. “Ruthie, I hope this isn’t the A Baby For My Doctor 3 (Taboo Pregnancy Romance) way things are going to continue to be. If we’re going on this journey together then I deserve some transparency.”

Tears started rolling down my face. Here was a man who had done everything right, and I was already making silly mistakes. “You’re right,” I mumbled. “You deserve better than that, A Baby For My Doctor 3 (Taboo Pregnancy Romance) and I promise I’ll give it to you.”

Slowly, I saw that color returning to the doctors face, and he moved closer to pull me into a huge hug. “Thank you,” he said. “This is just one little bump in the road, my love. We’ll get through all of this together.”

“And what about Leo... and my mom?” I asked.

“Let me take care if it...”

Chapter 2

Nolan wheeled me into the hospital waiting room, and Leo immediately stood to his feet when we entered. He was clearly agitated from waiting, but it appeared that the alcohol had worn out of his system.

“The baby?” he asked.

“The baby is fine,” I mumbled, wishing he had just left during the exam rather than sticking around. “And that’s all you need to know. You should go home.”

Leo smirked. “And let me guess? You’ll be going home with this character?”

“Leo,” Dr. Ryker said. “Stress is what brought Ruthie here today. And I know you didn’t mean to—”

“I didn’t mean what?” Leo interrupted and took a step toward Nolan. Immediately my pulse started racing, expecting another fight.

“Please, let me finish... I know you didn’t mean any harm, and I know that you care about Ruthie just as much as I do. We all know there’s a possibility that the baby is yours, and if you respect Ruthie’s health and the baby’s you won’t do anything that will risk her losing the child.”
