AN INTRODUCTION

FROM THE R.E.

TEACHER.

Hello, I want to explain what the rest of this book is about.

If none of the rest of this makes any sense to you at least this bit will be of benefit.

This book proves that we are all linked. It proves that the boy or girl sitting next to you only appears to be separate from you.

So what? Well if we are all part of one big thing it won't do to be starving some of us, beating others up, making others out to be stupid and so on.

We've got to work together on this.

FROM OFF HIS HEAD

There's your motivation art students.

A big piece of advice students, don't do what I am about to do and that is have a big spliff because then I will no way be able to talk about what I need to. Right now the ideas are hanging out there saying take me, take me but nooo I'm going to have a spliff first and then regret the decision, see you in a mo.

Ha ha, let's try this then. We'll start with feelings. All of you have feelings. You could put the word in a category marked, "Things all of us have," and where do you have those feelings?

When you are bored you are bored in your head, you don't feel it in your arm. You feel it in your imagination. We all have imagination in which we feel.

The normal thing to think is that we each see things differently.

God Is A DJ

After all the talking and thinking and experiences I come to realise this story is mine.

It's a sad point to come to.

I wanted it to be about us.

I know we are too far apart for that to happen.

I am left with one thing, me and I will draw no restrictions on my self.

Re: The God Is A DJ State of Play.

Dear Sirs,

God Is A DJ

May I start this letter by saying what an impressive list of names the above is. It's only a shame that no one knows who we are. It might be best if I indicate early on that this letter is probably going to irritate and annoy some of you God Is A DJ but you are probably used to that by now.

All I am seeking to do is throw some light on a situation that has been going on for some time. The reason for this being that I feel my private fantasies may have journeyed too far into the land of schizophrenia. As a twenty five year old man with responsibilities I feel I must do something to rectify this situation with a view to re-prioritising the time I have dedicated to God Is A DJ certain areas of my life.

Call this attention seeking if you will. Call it immaturity's end. Mr Off His Head waking up to God Is A DJ the real world at last. "Stupid arse, we have all been trying to get you to wise up for some time." you might even say. Well, in my meagre defence may I blame my incredibly supportive upbringing for some of this. The rest of the blame will have to rest squarely on my deficient mental condition and my refusal to grow up. Sorry.

So the point is...
God Is A DJ

a) Writing this letter is a lot more fun than doing my ace secretary/receptionist job at Link

b) I God Is A DJ would like a bit of open discussion to find out what everybody feels about themselves and each other. Not just the affirmation of what good mates we are but a deeper exploration of God Is A DJ some of the things we may have held inside for a number of years. I have always believed a modicum of God Is A DJ non-verbal communication goes on between us about these, God Is A DJ "Secrets," as Demeter so aptly calls them but now because of certain incidents I don't feel wholly comfortable in relying on this mode of communication, advanced as it may be.
