Bible Promises to Memorize and God's Promises: Bible Promises to Memorize and Mediate on Mediate on

By Miosotis Peralta

Have you ever wondered why some people's prayers get answered and others don't? Don't be fooled, it has nothing to do whether or not God is listening or whether or not God can answer your prayer. God spoke this world into existence. He spoke you into existence. There is nothing God cannot do. He doesn't function in the physical realm you do. God is above and beyond the physical realm because he created the physical realm.

The key to having your prayers answered is faith; Faith in God and His holy word. Faith that God can do what he says he can do. Your faith increases as you hear God's word. It is of utmost importance you spend daily time mediating on God's word.

God's holy word is powerful and life God's Promises: Bible Promises to Memorize and Mediate on changing. The Bible is filled with thousands of promises. You can count on God's promises because He is faithful even when we are not.
