
NOTE

This text is a compilation of the first four books of the New Testament. Mathew, Mark, Luke and John all tell the same story of Jesus, but each in his own way. This book tells that same story by editing those four books into one.

To avoid copyright issues with the many fine translations and presentations of the Bible, whose efforts are deeply Gospel: The Story of Jesus respected, this text is based on Gospel: The Story of Jesus the King James Version of the Bible. Some language, punctuation and Gospel: The Story of Jesus structure have been modernized to make it easier Gospel: The Story of Jesus to read and understand.

Do not look for chronological or geographical accuracy. What Gospel: The Story of Jesus is presented here is the story and message of Jesus for those who desire a single, easy-to-read version of the Gospels.

IN THE BEGINNING was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him and without him nothing was made. In him was life and the life was the light of men. And the light shines in darkness and the darkness comprehended it not.

The Birth of John the Baptist

There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judaea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia. His wife was of the daughters of Aaron. Her name was Elisabeth. They were both righteous before God, walking blameless in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. They had no child because Elisabeth was barren and they both were now well stricken in years.

And it came to pass that when Zacharias executed the priest's office before God, his job was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. At Gospel: The Story of Jesus a time when a multitude of the people were praying at the time of incense without any, there appeared to Zacharias an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar.

When Gospel: The Story of Jesus Zacharias saw him, he was troubled and fear fell upon him. But the angel said, "Fear not, Zacharias, for your prayer is heard. Your wife Elisabeth shall bear you a son and you shall call his name John. You shall have joy and gladness and many shall rejoice at his birth, for he shall be great in the sight of the Lord and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink. He shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb, and many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God. He shall go before the Lord in the spirit and power of Elias to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

Zacharias said to the angel, "How shall I know this? For I am an old man and my wife is well stricken in years."

The angel answered, "I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God, and am sent to speak to you and show you these glad tidings. Behold, you shall be mute and not able to speak until the day that these things shall be performed because you believed not my words which shall be fulfilled in their season."

The people waited for Zacharias and marveled that he tarried so long in the temple. When he came out, they perceived that he had seen a vision, for he beckoned Gospel: The Story of Jesus to them but remained speechless.

And it came to pass that as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house. After those days his wife Elisabeth conceived and hid herself for five months saying, "Thus has the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men."

In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. The angel came to her and Gospel: The Story of Jesus said, "Hail, you who are highly favored, the Lord is with you. Gospel: The Story of Jesus Blessed are you among women."

When Mary saw him, she was troubled at his saying and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. The angel said, "Fear not, Mary, for you have found favor with God. Behold, you shall conceive in your womb, bring forth a son, and shall call his name Jesus. He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Highest. The Lord God shall give to him the throne of his father David, he shall reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there shall be no end."

Mary said to the angel, "How shall this be, seeing that I have not known a man?"

The angel answered, "The Holy Ghost shall come upon you and the power of the Highest shall overshadow you. The holy child which shall be born of you shall be called the Son of God. Behold, your cousin Elisabeth, she has also conceived a son in her old age. This is the sixth month with her, who was called barren. For with God nothing shall be impossible."

Mary said, "Behold the handmaid of the Lord. Be it unto me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Juda. She entered the house of Zacharias and saluted Elisabeth. And it came to pass that, when Elisabeth heard the Gospel: The Story of Jesus salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost. Elisabeth spoke out with Gospel: The Story of Jesus a loud voice and said, "Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb. Why is it that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For, lo, as soon as the voice of your salutation sounded in my ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy."

Mary said, "My soul does magnify Gospel: The Story of Jesus the Lord and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior for he has regarded the low estate of his handmaiden. For, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For he that is mighty has done to me great Gospel: The Story of Jesus things and holy is his name. Gospel: The Story of Jesus His mercy is on them who fear him from generation to Gospel: The Story of Jesus generation. He has showed strength with his arm. He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He has put down the mighty from their seats and exalted them of low degree. He has filled the hungry with good Gospel: The Story of Jesus things and the rich he has sent away empty. He has helped his servant Israel in remembrance of his mercy, as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed forever."

Mary abode with Elisabeth about three months and then returned to her own house.

Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered and she brought forth a son. Her neighbors and her cousins heard how the Lord had showed great mercy on her and they rejoiced with her.

It came to pass that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child. They called him Zacharias, after the name of his father, but Elisabeth answered and said, "Not so. He shall be called John."

They Gospel: The Story of Jesus said to her, "There is none of your kindred that is called by this name." And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

Zacharias asked for a writing table and wrote, "His name is John."

Zacharias' mouth was opened immediately and his tongue loosed. He spoke and praised God.

Everyone that dwelt around them was in awe and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judaea. And everyone that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, "What manner of child shall this be! The hand of the Lord was with him."

His father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost and prophesied, saying, "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people. He has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David, as he spoke Gospel: The Story of Jesus by the mouth of his holy Gospel: The Story of Jesus prophets, who have been since the world began, that we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us, to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant, the oath that he swore to our father Abraham, that he Gospel: The Story of Jesus would grant to us, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life. Gospel: The Story of Jesus And you, child, shall be called the prophet of the Highest, for you shall go before the Lord to prepare his ways, to give knowledge of salvation to his people by the remission of their sins Gospel: The Story of Jesus Gospel: The Story of Jesus through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the dayspring from on high has visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace."

And the child grew, waxed strong in spirit, and Gospel: The Story of Jesus was in the deserts till the day of his showing to Israel.

The Birth of Jesus

Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise. When his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. Joseph, her husband, being a just man and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away in secret. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, Gospel: The Story of Jesus “Joseph, ye son of David, fear not Gospel: The Story of Jesus to take to you Mary, your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. She shall bring forth a son and you shall call his name Jesus, for he shall save his people from their sins.”

Now all this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, “Behold, a virgin shall be with child and shall bring forth a son. They shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.”

Then Gospel: The Story of Jesus Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, took to him his wife, and knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn Gospel: The Story of Jesus son. And he called his name Jesus.

It came to pass in those days that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed. All went to be taxed, everyone to his own city. Joseph went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, to Judaea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be taxed with Mary, his espoused wife, being great with child. While they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. She brought forth her firstborn son, wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger because there was no room for them in the inn.

There were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and they were sore afraid. But the angel said, “Fear not for, behold, I bring you good tidings Gospel: The Story of Jesus of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign to you. You shall find Gospel: The Story of Jesus the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.”
