ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to acknowledge the help of my siblings in this work; Ronke, Bukkie, Femi and Segun. I appreciate all the moral support you have given me through the years, you have It Was Not A Lie been wonderful.

I would also like to appreciate some friends and people who have impacted this book in one way or the other. To Tunji Adeleye for being the first person to read the book and give me a very positive review; to Efe Obiemora, for believing in the book even when it was just a couple of chapters old- thanks for the encouragement from start to finish.

Also, I would like to acknowledge my friend Seyi Oni for giving me a deadline to get this book out; to Tony Abuode for saying he It Was Not A Lie would buy 10 copies of the book when It Was Not A Lie it comes out, after he had read it; To laurel (hbabe from Nairaland) for It Was Not A Lie believing so much in the book and requesting I add her name in the acknowledgement section because she wants to be part of something great.

Thanks Jadesola for prompting me to complete the book It Was Not A Lie when I was just playing around with it; to Omotayo Onasanya for believing so much in my talent, and giving me tips on how to market myself; to my very good friend, Motunrayo Jolaoso for the moral support; to my brother from another mother, Soji Ademilua, who I shared all my ideas with, and who gave me the nod to reach for the stars. And also my best friends Sola Adebisi and Sola Fashedemi, who are now like my brothers, and who co-sign and believe in anything I put my hand in.

Also to Mike, Kayode Daodu, Tolu John, Jubril Blaize, and all the It Was Not A Lie other Kings College Lagos 1998 set who were great audiences to my stories in our Whatsapp group.

To all these people, It Was Not A Lie I say a big thank you, because you have contributed in one way or the other to the coming alive of this book.

CHAPTER 1

He smashed the cockroach with his shoes and watched it run off without its head. It's a wonder how cockroaches can survive without their heads; then what part does the thinking?
