“FROM THE HIGH PLACES OF ANU”

CHAPTER 1

The story of Beloved and all its wisdom

The prelude

Some would want to know how this story began:

One night in May after I had reached Oregon from Santa Rosa California,

I was contacted on facebook by someone who had visited my page,

And read where I spoke allegorically about flying high with Return of The Anunakki the vultures

She wrote that she loved vultures and at that time had a vulture on her profile page.we hit it off

well, I felt she was family.

in Texas as it does it was storming, thundering, and lighting and so was it in Oregon amid all the fire Return of The Anunakki and smoke the heat, at the time we took this as a sign, we kept in touch for the rest of the month, then I was to travel back to Santa Rosa for a yearly birthday party of some note, where I Return of The Anunakki was working in the entertainment Industry, and would be among large groups of people at all times, at concerts parties etc., it was then I noticed or should have realized something was not right with 'beloved' she would always accuse me of messing around with other women with no cause to do so, when we would skype and a female came near I was accused, and this kept up, I would come in Return of The Anunakki late from a concert and I would get a call or a skype she would accuse me, or she would appear to be upset and not answer.

I got no rest for six months, with this type thing going on, we would be doing well and all of a sudden she would snap. Another thing I noticed: she told me from the start she was very relaxed being nude, and started sending nude pictures etcetera from early on, but I looked over it; I figured she was just showing me what was mine in the future; I always told her I had been celibate Return of The Anunakki for 10 years and her body was not what interested me, she had a master's degree in education and few others...

all the signs were there from the start, when I first saw a picture of her I saw madness in her eyes; but being lonely and wanting to start a new family blinded me of the reality, and she was extra beautiful, and of Cherokee heritage this really 'got me going', so the plan was for us to meet 10/13/2015, from the start Return of The Anunakki she had brought both my books and viewed many of my videos on youtube etc. so she had learned much about me. Note I'm 58 years of age, last relationship, mate was 16 years younger, and when I was 49 the woman was 19...

Sura 53 An-Nyjma The star

10-29-2015=19 we were sleeping outside Return of The Anunakki on the air mattress when Return of The Anunakki we saw first Orion's belt the three stars pointed to Sirius this was three days before the tally for the Return of The Anunakki 111th world series was in, November 1st 2015=11...there issued forth an argument of sorts whether or not what we were viewing was Sirius as we did not see it in sky yet and I did not trust the software of 'Beloved' she knew she was correct and I was wrong, this was a highlight of the night me being wrong until I realized it was Sirius and Orion was on his side in the northwestern sky, I realized that 'beloved' was chosen to help me see this as it was a connection to my work on baseball and Sirius; or better yet Sirius star and the world series connection, which we will get into later in this little talk, what I came to Return of The Anunakki see in this all is how the spirits from other planets have come through and influenced ones in these last days at unawares. The spirit that showed me Sirius that night was a contrary and very disagreeable one, but it is the way of Return of The Anunakki Allah to even use the jinn in his work as help-meet this was to be the essence of this woman who had no soul...

Return of The Anunakki

Below are words I spoke to 'Beloved' before I met her in person or flew to Houston to meet her.

- "everybody caught up in it, I just leave that alone. Now even checking it out is a waste of time,(speaking of "Black lives matter") just like having sympathy for gays, some of them make us laugh, we know Satan is subtle, looking at them give them energy, have you noticed Return of The Anunakki some women have gay friends, (beloved had a Hispanic gay friend in ghetto she brought weed from, I met him had a long spliff he brought out and she started smoking it, so who ever penis he sucked, the vibe was transmitted through his saliva on the spliff I went on to explain)gay men friends; we got to pull away, and stop playing games, because in this hour it's about spirit not body, if mind is weak body is weak you say you need a man in your Return of The Anunakki life, but there are no men, just a few left.in order for women to have a real man in her life she has to be righteous and ready to lay down past conditioning and follow, Return of The Anunakki in my case she has to know I'm the truth that I am.we both know what's going on in the world, and we know that October 13 determines our future, we should make every effort that it turn out in our best interest. If you are thinking you know more than me or I have something Return of The Anunakki I have to realize then we will never meet...that's the law, I know at this point you do not know that but it is true, why do you think the process, why all the information I have given Return of The Anunakki you, it is to prepare you for me and our future.." at one point days before I was to leave, she said it would be Return of The Anunakki best I would not come, but this was just more of her so-called magic, as she knew I was all in and had been waiting and going through the process for six months, I thought it Return of The Anunakki was a true affair and the process(the long learning and waiting time we had before meeting) was helping us to know the other, it was; Return of The Anunakki but I did not realize the total darkness until I met her, but I always stood my ground. always showed her no matter how hard she tried she could and would not control me...she being Return of The Anunakki in denial until the day I left,) after her divorce from the father of her then 11 month old child, she lived in a room at her grand-mothers home on over 40 acres in the forest of Henderson Texas, her and grand mother did not get along, and the family did not like me,so her moving out was a good thing and a slap in their face, her grand mother and her father who was against our union and denied her property because of me...we had offered to work the land for the family and at same time earn my living, the father was totally against it,saying "tell him buy an acre of land and prove himself",what was ironic was that we found a ranch with a home on over 100 acres and much land to farm only 19 miles away in a town called Tatum, this in our minds was an answer from the Gods, one day she was Return of The Anunakki looking for houses to rent, and about to give up, I told her to keep trying and she came across the Advertisement, home was only Rent $600 monthly...

The above was retrieved from my files 11-1-2015=11, written around 9-22-2015=21 21 days before Return of The Anunakki my journey to east Texas, arriving on 13th of October as planned. Was not met inside airport, when I landed and called Beloved she said Return of The Anunakki she was on her way. I was feeling funny all the way, When she arrived she was not dressed very well, made no effort to impress me like I felt she should, she had on Return of The Anunakki very tight yoga pants or spandex yoga type pants, one could see through them, and when she would bend over as to retrieve something out of her car, for instance to get baby from baby seat, her panties were revealed, this was in the appearance of the average ghetto girl... first thing we did was go to an Afrocentric culture shop in a ghetto area of town, where a woman she knew for a while operated the business, her husband was a great man, there was a shrine or alter to him in the shop, even this was a sign... there I brought a star and crescent necklace, later we went to an east Indian restaurant where we ate a very nice meal, the baby not quite a year old made a great mess of things, it was there I noticed she to be very flirty Return of The Anunakki with other men in a very subtle way...
