Sorority Slut Spanked in Public

A Particularly Gratuitous Standalone Prologue

Hollie laughed as she tormented the three slaves in front of her. They weren't hers, but her Mistress had given her permission to play with them. Everyone in the building was under the complete control of her Mistress, but not all slaves were created equal.

The magic leash used by her Mistress gave her complete control over the body of anyone she wished, but the control over the slave's mind was more Sorority Slut Spanked in Public (A Mind Control Leash Spin-off Book 1) varied. Some had their personality completely sublimated beneath Mistress Chloe. These slaves typically were in a constant state of happiness, happy to be fulfilling their new -- and only -- Sorority Slut Spanked in Public (A Mind Control Leash Spin-off Book 1) goal in life, to serve their owner. Others hated their subjugation passionately. They served every bit as faithfully as the happy slaves, but you could see it in their eyes, and they would tell you if they had permission to speak about it.

The slaves who especially pleased Mistress were given special treatment, and Hollie was Mistress's favorite. Hollie had made an important discovery about the leash, and Mistress had rewarded her greatly for it.

Hollie's discovery was that slaves could be given orders relating to their feelings. Mistress could, for example, order a slave to continue to be loyal, but to have their mind return to the state which Sorority Slut Spanked in Public (A Mind Control Leash Spin-off Book 1) it was in back when they were free. She could order a slave to be happy or sad, to laugh or to cry, or even to orgasm. Mistress had been overjoyed by this. More than anything else, Chloe wanted revenge on the people who had mistreated her before she became Mistress. The day Hollie made her discovery, Mistress restored the original minds Sorority Slut Spanked in Public (A Mind Control Leash Spin-off Book 1) of the Sorority Slut Spanked in Public (A Mind Control Leash Spin-off Book 1) people she hated while keeping her iron grip on their obedience.

For Hollie's part in this, Mistress had made Hollie a sort of second in command. All slaves were under explicit orders to obey Hollie, so long as she did not contradict their Mistress.

Today Hollie was enjoying her power by tormenting three of her former professors. There was Darla, a tall leggy blonde who taught Biology and gave Hollie her first ever F. Darla's Sorority Slut Spanked in Public (A Mind Control Leash Spin-off Book 1) husband, Larry, had been an Architecture teacher. Darla's sister, Darlene, was young, new to the school, and did TA work for Darla.

Currently Hollie was making Larry fuck Darlene while Darla watched. It was a daily ritual for Hollie, and the exercise was slowly driving Darla insane. The first day, Hollie had ordered Larry to spew constant dirty talk as he fucked his wife's sister in front of her. The second day, Hollie had ordered him to only say things he knew would hurt his wife.

"Oh yeah," Larry moaned as his sister-in-law deep throated him. He was looking directly into his wife's eyes. "It's been so long since I've had a good blow job. My stupid cunt of a wife is hopeless at it. You know how she is, with those oversized buck teeth of hers."

As Darla began to cry, he tried to comfort her. "Oh God, you know I don't mean that honey. I have no more control over my body than you do!" he assured her. On the third day, Hollie had decided to allow him to speak freely some of the time. "We'll get through this together, you know I love you, you know I...I... I'M CUMMING! Yeah! Did you know that stupid whore I married can't even swallow? She tries, but it makes her throw up. God I hate her," he said, Sorority Slut Spanked in Public (A Mind Control Leash Spin-off Book 1) still looking directly at his wife.
