Dedication

To Marlene who got me to Binghamton... Suitcases on the Roof and beyond, to Jack who got us to Florida, to Ichiguchi who internationalized my travel bug, to the Montreal police who let us sleep in their parking lot, to Sam who anchored my spiritual connection to the home front and who kept me abreast of the literary and political scene, to Farida for being a rock – my rock, to the Moroccan Experiment in International Living Group: Driss, Zhor, Aziz, Salah, Omar, Mirjana, Abdeljalil, and Brian, to John F. Kennedy for establishing the Peace Corps, to Sonja for the support during critical times and for the American Heritage Dictionary, to the Sebti's and the Megzari's for their kindness, to Sebastian Dangerfield for his travel ideas, unending support, encouragement -- and his partner Rich for their example of friendship and dedication, to Safia – for too much to mention... everything, to Michael who put up with the passing miles, Jerry Jeff CD's, and the vegetarian restaurants, to Adnan for his interest and advice, to Iris J. Jones – a great friend and writing partner, to Irv for the upper room oasis and for the scotch and conversation on the back porch, to the Friday-Nighters for their Suitcases on the Roof friendship and good cheer, to Siripanya for her interest and support, and to all those individuals on Suitcases on the Roof the road who greeted Suitcases on the Roof me with a smile and helped me on my way when I was lost.
