To Be or Not To Be a Missionary

At an LDS- based school, I interact with return missionaries on a daily basis. However, I encounter many good people who chose not to serve a mission. Almost everyday in every class, a teacher or student makes a reference to missionaries or missionary work, especially in religion classes, which are required To Be or Not To Be a Missionary (BYU Religion Courses) to graduate. For young men and women, there is a lot of pressure to go on a mission. The new age change has given even more pressure, especially to the girls, who are now able to go when they are nineteen. So what about those people who don't go on missions? They often feel judged or like an outcast.
