ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Words go begging when Trust & Obey My Word (His Living Word Book 2) it comes to the long tedious hours spent by my good friend and Christian sister, Freda Coyner, my Editor, who exhibited stick-to-it determination in bringing Book 2 to print-ready status for publishing in the “His Living Word Series.”

In this labor of love she has spent long hours on all the details inherent in editing in order to assemble this 2nd book in the series of the Lord's messages spoken to my inner man (spirit), readying these materials for publication and distribution so that the public may read and enjoy our Lord's messages to a broken and dying world.

William G. Mason

WILLIAM MASON-- a bit of history.

I was born during the “Great depression” years to a Hebrew family. I never learned the language, but my parents observed the holidays as they came along.

I always had an appetite for learning new things, and also a built in creative mind; I was always in the top third of my class, which put me with the group who were preparing for a higher education.

I went to Case School of Applied Sciences. When World War II broke out, I applied for flight school and passed all the tests required by The United States Navy. By the time I finished Trust & Obey My Word (His Living Word Book 2) flight training the war was almost ended; and after a freak aircraft accident in Norman, Oklahoma, I was discharged.

I came home, finished school, and was trained to be an Electro/Mechanical Research and Development Engineer after which I Trust & Obey My Word (His Living Word Book 2) worked for Rockedyne in California designing circuit boards that went into Army and Navy ships and aircraft.

I met the love of my life at a dance hall in California and we were subsequently married March 31, 1951.

I Trust & Obey My Word (His Living Word Book 2) traveled extensively during those years, calling on foreign clients for Rockedyne, straightening out technical problems for our company.

On one occasion, my company sent me to Japan: I was not a happy camper as I didn't, and still don't, like to travel alone that length of time. My chief engineer said, “Take your wife with you.”

So off we went for three weeks. While in the air I said to Trust & Obey My Word (His Living Word Book 2) Jean, “ I think the Lord is saying something to me”—Jean said, “What is He saying?” I said, “ I have a pen but nothing to write on!”

She leaned forward to the back pocket of the seat in front of her and said, “Here's a barf bag.”

I only wrote three sentences; that is all I could hear at that time. I still have a yellowed envelope that was written in 1979. Since then the Lord has “impregnated” me with the title of His messages and given me the scripture that Trust & Obey My Word (His Living Word Book 2) goes along with the body of the work.

That started over 30 years ago and I am still writing down his messages.

My Editor, Freda Trust & Obey My Word (His Living Word Book 2) Coyner, and I, spent countless hours bringing the first book to fruition. It was published by Xulon Press in May of 2010 and Trust & Obey My Word (His Living Word Book 2) is available at Amazon.com and Barnes & Nobles book stores. The title of Book 1 is
